Minister of Preschool & Children
BIO

Martha Kate is originally from Augusta, Georgia. Her parents, George and Julie Berry are both teachers. She graduated from Mercer University with Bachelor of Music degree in church music in 2004. From Mercer she went on to Truett Seminary in Waco, Texas where she just completed her Master of Divinity degree in Christian Education. Martha Kate met her husband, Jason Hall, at Truett and they were married December 23, 2006. Jason, currently working on a Master of Divinity degree at Truett, plans to enter the ministry as a military chaplain.

Martha Kate served as an intern for two summers at First Baptist Church in Jesup, Georgia. In the summer of 2006 she served as the Children's Intern at Tallowood Baptist Church in Houston, Texas. She is currently pursuing ordination through her home church, First Baptist Church of Augusta, Georgia.

Martha Kate's passions are music and children. In her spare time she also enjoys cooking, decorating, scrap booking, sewing and writing notes to friends and family.

Personal Mission Statement

I want to live life with a song in my heart serving God with every breath that I take. I will love, cherish, comfort and teach each person within the reach of my ministry. I will place God above all things striving to be more like Christ. I am committed to teaching from Bible based curriculum using methods which are educationally sound. I will live a life of learning, continuing to invest my time in reading and studying to better understand myself, the church, people and ministry.
